The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is the key to accessing financial aid for college, career, and trade schools, including grants, scholarships, and loans. To get started, you'll need an FSA ID—a personal username and password that allows you to complete, sign, and track your FAFSA online. STEP 3: Account Information

- Username: If you see a message, "The username you entered is already in use" then you need to select another one.
- Email: Students should use a PERSONAL email, as school email will not be accessible after graduation
- Password: Case-sensitive, between 8 & 30 characters, including at least one uppercase and one lowercase character, and one number. Don't include personal information (date of birth, name, or social security number)

STEP 4: Contact Information

Provide a permanent address and mobile phone number. Phone number will allow for authentication and will aid in account recovery.

- Select whether you receive required communication by email (recommended) or postal mail.
- May opt-in to receive informational emails and/or text messages regarding programs for which you may be eligible.
- Select preferred language between English or Spanish

- Review carefully and confirm your information
- If you need to make a correction, use the "edit" button within that tile of information.
- Review and agree to FSA's terms and conditions

STEP 8: Enable Two-Step Verification

Whenever you sign into your account, FSA will send a secure code to confirm that it is you. To protect your account, you will need to verify your phone number and email. FSA also suggest setting up an authenticator app.

Your information will be sent to the Social Security Administration (SSA) for confirmation. SSA review will take 1-3 days; you will receive a confirmation email when this is complete.

If you answered YES to one or more of these questions, you are considered an

INDEPENDENT STUDENT

on the FAFSA. You will NOT need to provide your parents' information when completing your FAFSA application.
Contact the college or university you plan to attend for more information about your dependency status.

Applicants who indicate on their FAFSA form that they have unusual circumstances and are unable to contact a parent or that contact with a parent poses a risk to the student, will be granted provisional independent status. A student may be experiencing unusual circumstances if they:

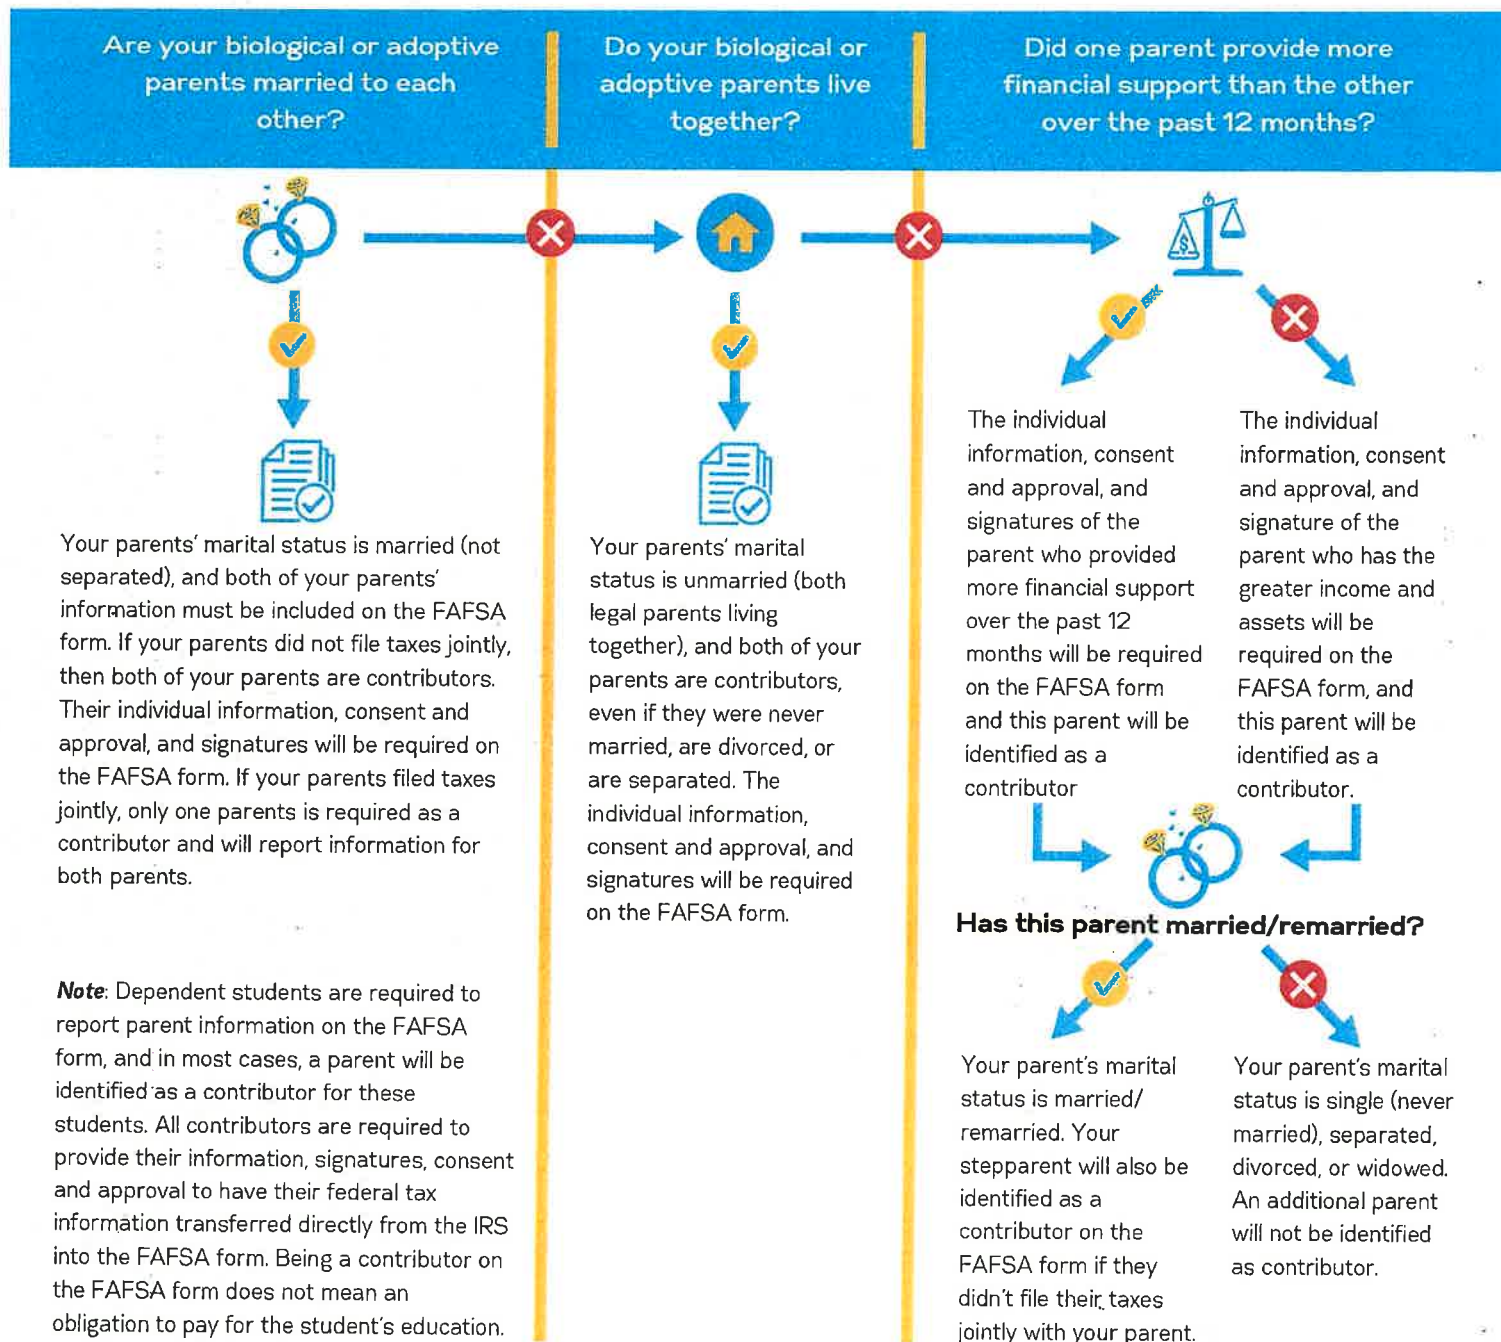

- Left home due to an abusive or threatening environment;
- Are abandoned by or estranged from their parents;
- Have refugee or asylee status and are separated from their parents, or their parents are displaced in a foreign country;
- Are a victim of human trafficking;
- Are incarcerated, or their parents are incarcerated, and contact with the parents would pose a risk to the student; or
- Are otherwise unable to contact or locate their parents.

Funding Your Future FAFSA- CONTRIBUTORS

Is My Parent a CONTRIBUTOR When I Fill Out My FAFSA Form?

A parent means your legal (biological or adoptive) parent or a person that the state has determined to be your legal parent. A stepparent is considered a parent if they have adopted you. Stepparents that have not adopted you will be identified as a parent spouse.

Note: Dependent students are required to report parent information on the FAFSA form, and in most cases, a parent will be identified as a contributor for these students. All contributors are required to provide their information, signatures, consent and approval to have their federal tax information transferred directly from the IRS into the FAFSA form. Being a contributor on the FAFSA form does not mean an obligation to pay for the student's education.
